

Universidad de Granada

Ei&G

European Integration and Globalization

Centre of Excellence

With the collaboration of the Jean Monnet Chair ad personam of European Constitutional Law and Globalization, the Jean Monnet Chair of European Constitutional Law, the Peter Häberle Research Center on Constitutional Law, University of Granada, the Peter Häberle Foundation and the Andalusian Institute of Public Administration

Jean Monnet Chair, ad personam of European Constitutional Law:
Multilevel Constitutionalism and Globalization

INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS

The dimension of Public Administration in the context of globalization

Salón Rojo
Faculty of Law,
February 11 and 12, 2014

Instituto Andaluz de Administración Pública
CONSEJERÍA DE HACIENDA Y ADMINISTRACIÓN PÚBLICA

February 11

9,00 h., Inauguration of the Congress: Concepción Becerra Bermejo, Director of the Andalusian Institute of Public Administration. Intervention: Prof. Francisco Balaguer Callejón, Prof. Enrique Guillén López, Prof. Miguel Azpitarte Sánchez.

FIRST PART. Analysis of different Public Administrations

First Session, Presided by Prof. Dr. José María Porras Ramírez

9,30 h., “The dimension of State and Public Administration in Spain”. Augusto Aguilar Calahorra (Professor of Constitutional Law, University of Granada, Spain).

10. h., “The Public Administration in Germany: principles, evolutionary steps and maintenance of the system from the crisis”. Maria Daniela Poli (Researcher on Comparative Law, University of Bari, Italy).

10,30 h., “The dimension of sector and Public Administration in Italy. An area in a state of constant motion?”. Anna Margherita Russo (Researcher García Pelayo of the CEPC, Madrid, Spain).

11 h., “The dimension of State and Public Administration from a comparative perspective. The French case”. Katia Blairon (Maître de conférences de droit public, Université de Lorraine, France).

11,30 h., Pause.

Second Session, Presided by Prof. Dr. José Antonio Montilla Martos

12 h., “The dimension of State and Public Administration from a comparative perspective: the United Kingdom”. Helen Kerr (Researcher, University of Granada).

12,30 h., “The Administration of the European Commission as an example of European Public Administration reform: an analysis in constitutional key in the framework of the economic crisis”. Cristina Elías Méndez (Professor of Constitutional Law, UNED, Spain).

13 h., “The Administration in the USA: a brief overview from reforms to the current crisis”. Sabrina Ragone (Researcher García Pelayo of the CEPC, Madrid, Spain).

13,30 h., “An analysis of constitutional design and the evolution of the Brazilian public sector”. Hugo Cesar Araújo de Gusmão (Professor of Constitutional Law of State University of Paraíba, Brazil).

SECOND PART. Analysis of thematic lines.

First Session, Presided by Prof. Dr. Juan Francisco Sánchez Barrilao

16,30 h., “Constitutional principles affecting the public sector”. Andrea Romano (Researcher, University La Sapienza, Roma, Italy).

17 h., “Historical evolution of the public sector”. Valentina Faggiani (Researcher of Constitutional Law, University of Granada, Spain).

17,30 h., “Current structure of the public sector in relation to Gross Domestic Product”. Greta Massa Gallerano (Researcher, University of Calabria, Italy).

18 h., “Congruence of the configuration of the public sector with the constitutional ties binding the public authorities”. Cláudia Perotto Biagi (Researcher, University of Granada, Spain).

18,30 h., Pause.

Second Session, Presided by Prof. Dr. Paulo Roberto Barbosa Ramos

19 h., “Consistency of the configuration of the public sector with the constitutional regulation of Administration”. Tommaso Poli (Researcher of Constitutional Law, University of Bari, Italy).

19,30 h., “Reforms of the Administration and the public sector prior to the crisis”. Arianna Cascelli (Researcher, University of Granada).

February 12

Third Session, Presided by Prof. Dr. Gregorio Cámara Villar

9,30 h., “The economic situation in the precise context of the current crisis”. Mariana Rodrigues Canotilho (Professor of the Coimbra University, Portugal).

10 h., “Projects of reform of the Administration and the public sector following the economic crisis”. Francesco Corfiati (Researcher, University of Granada).

10,30 h., “Global assessment of the evolution of the public sector and projects of reform”. Fausto Vecchio (Assistant Professor, Universidad Kore de Enna, Italy).

11 h., “Formulating proposals for possible lines of reform”. Angelo Schillaci (Researcher of Constitutional Law, University of Teramo, Italy).

11,30 h., Pause.

12 h., Discussion and general debate.

13 h., Closure of the Congress. Prof. Angelo Schillaci, Prof. Mariana Rodrigues Canotilho, Prof. Augusto Aguilar Calahorro, Prof. Francisco Balaguer Callejón and Prof. Gregorio Cámara Villar

Direction of the Congress: Prof. Dr. Francisco Balaguer Callejón. Director of the Centre of Excellence on European Integration and Globalization (Ei&G), Professor Jean Monnet of European Constitutional Law and “ad personam” of European Constitutional Law and Globalization. President of the Peter Häberle Foundation. Coordination of the Congress: Prof. Enrique Guillén López, Associate Professor of Constitutional Law and Director of the Department of Constitutional Law of the University of Granada, Prof. Miguel Azpitarte Sánchez, Associate Professor of Constitutional Law and Secretary of Peter Häberle Foundation. Secretary of the Congress: Prof. Augusto Aguilar Calahorro, Professor of Constitutional Law and Valentina Faggiani, Researcher of Constitutional Law.

Scientific Committee of the Congress: Francisco Balaguer Callejón, Gregorio Cámara Villar, Yolanda Gómez Sánchez, José Humberto López Martínez, Miguel Azpitarte Sánchez.