

Universidad de Granada

Ei&G

European Integration and Globalization

Centre of Excellence

With the collaboration of the Jean Monnet Chair ad personam of European Constitutional Law and Globalization, the Jean Monnet Chair of European Constitutional Law, the Peter Häberle Research Center on Constitutional Law, University of Granada, the Peter Häberle Foundation and National Research Project DER2013-42960-P Constitutional dimension of European integration process in the globalization context

Jean Monnet Chair, ad personam of European Constitutional Law:
Multilevel Constitutionalism and Globalization

INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS

The Impact of the economic crisis on the EU
Institutions and Member States

Sala de Vistas
Faculty of Law,
February 10 and 11, 2015

February 10

9,00 h., Inauguration of the Congress: Prof. Francisco Balaguer Callejón, Prof. Enrique Guillén, Prof. Miguel Azpitarte Sánchez.

First Session, The crisis european impact, Presided by Prof. Dr. D. Roberto Miccù

9,30 h., “The role of European Institutions in the crisis”, Cristina Elías (Professor of Constitutional Law. UNED. Spain)

10. h., “The anti-crisis measures adopted by the European Union (between continuity institutional choices, negative integration and the ‘deconstitutionalitation’ of supranational law)”, Marco Benvenuti (Professor of Public Law, University of Rome ‘La Sapienza’, Italy)

10,30 h., “The position of the European Court of Justice in relation to the measures taken against the crisis”, Augusto Aguilar Calahorro (Professor of Constitutional Law, University of Granada, Spain).

11 h., Pause.

Second Session. The impact of the crisis on Member States (I). Presided by Prof. Dr. D. José María Porrás Ramírez

11,30 h., Spain: “The revival of the policy in the face of economy”, Augusto Aguilar Calahorro (Professor of Constitutional Law, University of Granada, Spain)

12 h., Germany: “The German ant and Mediterranean grasshopper: the contradictions of German locomotive”, María Daniela Poli (Researcher on Comparative Law, University of Bari, Italy).

12,30 h., France “What territorial solution to economic challenges?”, Katia Blairon (Maître de conférences de droit public, Université de Lorraine, France).

13 h., Portugal: “Austerity and fundamental rights in Portugal: episodes of never- ending crisis”, Mariana Rodrigues Canotilho (Professor of the University of Coimbra, Portugal).

13,30 h., United Kingdom: “Towards Brexit? The relationship between the UK and European Union facing financial crisis challenge”, Andrea Romano (Researcher on Constitutional Law. University of Rome ‘La Sapienza’, Italy).

14 h. Pause

Third Session. The crisis impact on Member States (II). Presided by Prof. Dr. D. José Antonio Montilla Martos

16 h., Ireland: “Ireland's After-Party: Reflections on the haemorrhaging of the economy from a legal perspective”, Helen Kerr (Researcher, University of Granada, Spain).

16,30 h., Greece: “The crisis impact on the constitutional order of Greece”, Giulia Aravantinou Leonidi (Researcher on Comparative Constitutional Law, University of Rome ‘La Sapienza’, Italy)

17 h., Hungary: "Quo vadis Europe. The Hungarian populist degeneration between economic crisis and constitutional crisis". Fausto Vecchio (Professor of Constitutional Law. University 'Kore' of Enna, Italy)

17,30 h., Poland: "¿a green island in the EU economic crisis?", Valentina Faggiani (Researcher. University of Granada, Spain)

18 h., Austria: "The Austrian Unionsverfassungsrecht to the European economic crisis test". Ulrike Haider (Professor of Constitutional Law, Guglielmo Marconi University, Italy)

18,30 h, Pause

Fourth Session. Public policies of emerging countries in the crisis years. Presided by Prof. Dra. Donatella Loprieno

19 h., Brazil: " Policies and effectiveness of Social Rights on the 1988 Constitution in times of crisis", Hugo César Gusmão (Professor of Constitutional Law. State University of Paraíba, Brazil)

19,30 h., Russia: "The appearance of the global economic crisis in Russia: experience of self-improvement and modern challenges ", Elena Rafalyuk (Institute of Legislation and Comparative Law, Moscow, Russia)

20 h., China: "China's Growth Path to Innovative and Sustainable Economic Development", Zhenyan Xi (Centre of European Studies, University of Sichuan, China)

11 de Febrero

Fifth Session. The crisis impact on Domestic Constitutional Law (I) Presided by Prof. Dr. D. Juan Francisco Sánchez Barrilao

9 h., "The constitutional reforms regarding budgetary stability", Laura Frosina (Researcher on Comparative Public Law, Inoversity of Rome 'La Sapienza', Italy)

9,30 h., "The impact of the crisis on the distribution of power between national parliaments and governments", Sabrina Ragone (Researcher García Pelayo of the CEPC, Madrid, Spain).

10 h., "The impacto of the crisis on the territorial distribution of power", Dra. Doña Greta Massa Gallerano (Researcher on Constitutional Law, University of Calabria, Italy).

10,30 h., "Constitutional courts and economic governance: democracy and fundamental rights in the crisis storm", Tommaso Poli (Researcher on Constitutional Law. University of Bari, Italy).

11 h.: Pause

Sixth Session, The crisis impact on Domestic Constitutional Law (II). Presided byl Prof. Dr. D. Gregorio Cámara Villar

11,30 h., "The negative effects of anti-crisis policies on fundamental rights", Francesco Corfiati (Researcher, University of Granada, Spain).

12 h., "Democracy, rights and social movements: Democracia, derechos y movimientos sociales: constitutional dimensions of the crisis ", Angelo Schillaci (Researcher on Constitutional Law, University of Teramo, Italy).

12,30 h., Discussion and general debate.

13,30 h., Closure of the Congress. Prof. Angelo Schillaci, Prof. Mariana Rodrigues Canotilho, Prof. Augusto Aguilar Calahorro, Prof. Francisco Balaguer Callejón and Prof. Gregorio Cámara Villa

Direction of the Congress: Prof. Dr. Francisco Balaguer Callejón. Director of the Centre of Excellence on European Integration and Globalization (Ei&G), Professor Jean Monnet of European Constitutional Law and “ad personam” of European Constitutional Law and Globalization. President of the Peter Häberle Foundation. Coordination of the Congress: Prof. Enrique Guillén López, Associate Professor of Constitutional Law and Director of the Department of Constitutional Law of the University of Granada, Prof. Miguel Azpitarte Sánchez, Associate Professor of Constitutional Law and Secretary of Peter Häberle Foundation, Prof. Juan Francisco Sánchez Barrilao, Associate Professor of Constitutional Law and Leader of the National Research Project DER2013-42960-P Constitutional dimension of European integration process in the globalization context. Secretary of the Congress: Prof. Augusto Aguilar Calahorro, Professor of Constitutional Law.

Comité Científico del Congreso: Francisco Balaguer Callejón, Gregorio Cámara Villar, Yolanda Gómez Sánchez, José Humberto López Martínez, Miguel Azpitarte Sánchez.

